

THE VOTER

August 2018

The New Pinellas County Voter Guide Is Here!

The 2018 Pinellas County Voter Guide is officially here! The Voter Guide has all of the nonpartisan election information you've come to expect from the League of Women Voters - and now it's more powerful than ever.

You can find the new Voter Guide at pinellasvoterguide.com. It includes:

- a mobile-friendly site that's easier to navigate
- the ability to create a personalized sample ballot that lets you compare the candidates who will appear on your ballot
- nonpartisan information about federal, state and local races, as well as candidates' responses to questions on key issues
- analysis of the 13 proposed constitutional amendments (these will appear on ballots after the primary election)
- voter resources including details about where, when and how to register to vote, plus a lot more!

Now that the Voter Guide is live, we need your help to get the word out about it! We've made it easy for you to do that with our social media toolkit. Just visit pinellasvoterguide.com/share and share the ready-made social media posts you'll find there. It's a simple yet effective way to help your friends and family become informed about the candidates they'll be voting on this month.

And don't forget these important dates:

- Early Voting: Aug. 18 through Aug. 26
- Deadline to Request Mail Ballot: Aug. 26
- Primary Election: Aug. 28

Meet the Judicial Candidates!

Voters often don't hear very much about judicial races, even though judges play a very critical role in our government. Now you'll have a chance to judge the candidates for yourself!

The Aug. 7 judicial community forum offers a unique opportunity to hear from the judicial candidates themselves and to learn more about them before casting your ballot.

The forum moderators will ask a set of pre-determined questions that conform to the rules of Florida's judicial code of conduct, which governs candidates' public speech. Sorry - you won't have the chance to ask questions at this forum.

This forum will be held at 6 p.m. at the Enoch Davis Center, located at 1111 18th Ave. S. in St. Petersburg. Doors open at 5:30 p.m.

This event is co-sponsored by the LWVSPA and the National Council of Negro Women - St. Pete Metro Section.

Exposing the Truth About Florida's Fake Clinics

The Reproductive Rights & Justice action team is working to educate the public about the truth behind crisis pregnancy centers, which represent themselves as legitimate health providers but exist primarily to shame women out of accessing abortion services.

A law passed earlier this year gives these centers permanent state funding, even though they are largely unregulated and offer limited - if any - medical care. This "Last Week Tonight with John Oliver" segment offers a good explainer about the deceptive tactics used by these centers.

The action team preparing to hold a visibility event on Aug. 23 and they need you to join them. To participate, fill out this form and you'll be sent an email with more information closer to the date of the event.

Gulfport Votes 100%

What would it look like if everyone participated in our democracy? It sounds pretty amazing, right? Back in 2004, Ingrid Bredenberg launched a plan in a small town in Massachusetts and nearly accomplished exactly that.

Now Ingrid, who serves on the Voter Services committee, wants to bring a similar initiative to Gulfport.

Gulfport Votes 100% is a plan to engage leaders and community members alike in working toward the goal of full democratic participation. It's ambitious but also very possible - and Ingrid needs your help to make it happen.

If you live in Gulfport and this sounds like something you're interested in - which it probably is, seeing as though you're a League member! - then go to the Gulfport Votes tab on this Google Sheet and add your information. Someone will be in touch with you to tell you how you can get involved!

Join Us for St. Petersburg's Sustainability Summit

The summit will give residents the chance to learn more about the City's Integrated Sustainability Action Plan and to share their own ideas and strategies for sustainability in St. Petersburg. You can read more about the City's plan for sustainability and resilience by visiting stpete.org/sustainability.

The Voter Service team has been extremely busy during the past month. They've helped put on three school board candidate forums all over the county (check out this great Times article about one of them), they've co-organized a luncheon featuring the judicial candidates, they're co-sponsoring a judicial community forum on Aug. 7 - and they're just getting started. With the election season getting under way, the Voter Service team is super active and is always looking for volunteers to help with voter registration, tabling at events and helping out at candidate forums.

This committee meets on the 4th Tuesday of the month @ 6:30 p.m. at the LWVSPA Office, 233 3rd St. N., St. Petersburg. Email Team Lead Raechel Garafalo for more information.
